

AACP Organization Membership Application

The Association of Adventist Camp Professionals (AACP) is an organization directly affiliated with the North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists and was created to fulfill the mission:

“To equip and support camp ministry professionals as they advance the kingdom of God”

Having membership in AACP entitles members to keep up to date with Adventist Camp Ministries in North America. Organization members may receive the monthly E-News and periodic updates, attend the AACP Convention at member rates, and be a part of the collective voice of the Adventist camp professionals.
